VISION || WISDOM || STRENGTH

Pt. Raja Raj Kumar Bakshi

FOUNDER

An eminent social worker who was groomed under the noble and patriotic influence of his mother Rani Dhanraj Pati Bakshi, a freedom fighter. As a young widow at 18, she developed her little to the freedom movement and died at the age of 39 due to injuries from a lathi charge at Lahore. Young Raj Kumar Bakshi was much influenced by his mother living in courageous and turbulent times. He made vast contributions to the Bhoodan movement and was a strong supporter of the freedom struggle.

As a social worker and philanthropist, he alleviated lives of many.

And later had a will of setting up educational institutions thus spreading the light of literacy and giving hope to people to live a better life which was lately fulfilled by her visionary wife Lt. Smt. Mira Bakshi, establishing the three educational institutions and embodying his ideals of Vision, Wisdom and Strength.

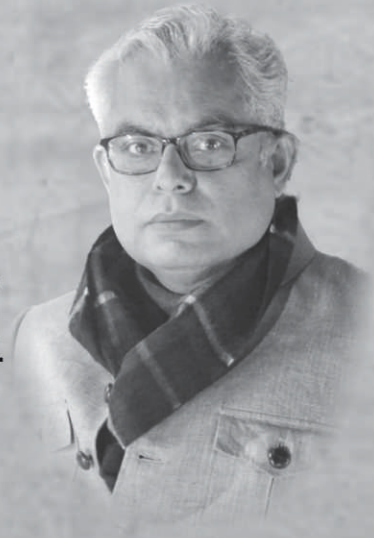

Smt. Mira Bakshi

CO-FOUNDER

The hon'ble, Lt. Smt. Mira Bakshi has been a mentor with a commendable blend of ideals and discipline. Inspired by her husband, the Lt. Pt. Raja Raj Kumar Bakshi, she stressed on the importance of "education to drive positive change in society." She was honoured by the Lt. PM Jawaharlal Nehru on being the first woman graduate in archeology and numismatics in India.

Besides being a well-educated and groomed individual, she was also a patron of music and arts. Her efforts in imbibing discipline and respect for an education driven culture has been effective and appreciated throughout the years.
